Aus unserem Frauenverein

It is amazing how time passes and summer is over. I am looking forward to fall with the leaves in full colour. I hope everybody had a wonderful summer.

We had our first meeting and a lot to discuss. Our Applemania, September 22, 2010 as everybody knows is a lot of organization and work. Now we need only participants to make it a great day.

Rosi Kramolowsky also reminded the members that the Oktoberfest in the park is on September 18th and it will be an all day event. By the time you read this, it will be all over.

And now we prepare for our Bazaar on November 21, 2010. Linda Wanner will be in charge for the table renting, phone 905-544-1982. Linda has been doing this job for a number of years and she is great and does a wonderful job. This shows you if you're good at what you do; you can't go away from it. Linda deserves a thank you for her staying power.

Annemarie Kiss deserves a thank you too; for making the flyers and tickets for our Applemania and flyers for the Bazaar.

Our Birthday Ladies for October 2010 are:

Linda Wanner	Oct. 3
Heide Marlen Grunwald	Oct. 5
Uschi Schien	Oct. 8

*Vera Pamukoff Oct. 30
Congratulations to all the Ladies.*

Oh, I forgot our honourable Junior Member Samantha Kiss on Oct. 9. She is now a teenager of 13 years. Congrats.

*That will be all for now.
Stay healthy and keep smiling.*

*Here is my little saying for the month.
It's easy to procrastinate
and leave good deeds undone.
But such a course will bring regrets
when life's short race is run.
Do it now
today will be yesterday's tomorrow.

*Till next time

Ladies Auxiliary Annual Christmas Bazaar

November 21, 2010
11 am

Choral Notes

Summer ended with a heat wave and suddenly we are in fall. We enjoyed meeting each other again on September 9th and immediately got into the review of our wine songs. Two days later we departed for a tour of the Reif Estate. Mr. Reif and co. served us a fine picnic and of course we sampled their wines, and of course we showed our appreciation with a few songs.

Autumn is a very busy time for us choristers. This month we'll be involved with Oktoberfest, and on October 16th we will participate in celebrating the Club's anniversary. Seven days later we will celebrate our Winefest, and then there will be the Memorial Service in the Park on November 7th. If we drop in on some of the activities of the other subgroups, such as the Applemania of the Ladies' Auxiliary or the Turkey Shoot of the Fishers and Hunters, our heads will be spinning with business and fun. No doubt, Linus Press has selected some Christmas music for our concert in December, and with all the ado, that will be the focus of our practices.

According to the laws of nature and tradition, Uschi Schien and Günter Heitland will be celebrating their birthdays in October. May you continue to experience memorable times in good health. Happy Birthday!

I hope I did not miss any important details, but today is the editor's deadline, and I must send this article away now!

Be of good cheer!

THE OVER SIXTY GROUP

I can't believe it's already October. Where has the time flown? On October 3rd it will be my birthday and it seems I just celebrated it. But that was last year and now I'm a year older and better. Happy Birthday to me.

I am also thrilled to say that Sigrid and Terry Whelan celebrated their 50th anniversary in September. Best wishes to both of you and may you have many more anniversaries.

I'm looking forward to seeing you all at our meeting on October 20th.

Yours truly

The tale begins when architect Harold Berger (Paul Hubschmid) arrives in India to meet with Maharajah Chandra (Walter Reyer), for whom he will build a temple. En route to the Maharajah's palace, Berger meets a dancer named Seetha (Debra Paget) and saves her from a tiger. Seetha is promised to the Maharajah, but she and the architect begin to fall in love. Predictably, this leads to a buildup of tension between Chandra and Berger, helped along by scheming palace courtiers. The film is also filled with action, and a highlight of it is Seetha's first ritual dance. At the end of Tiger, Seetha and Berger are imprisoned but escape into the desert just as Berger's sister, also an architect, arrives with the team of architects hired to continue his work. Chandra informs her the plans have changed; she will now be building a tomb.

Fischer & Jäger

Hello folks and welcome to October. It is amazing that the summer has gone so quickly. We at the Vorstand hope you all had a safe and happy summer.

The Senior Prize fishing is happening and I will report more on that later.

Our last festivity was our 2nd Annual Corn Roast. What a hoot and big thanks to the people that made this a success.

Really, all we are working on now is our Turkey Shoot and then Christmas, so come on out to the meetings and let us know.

*Until we meet again
Stay safe and be well.
Petri Hiel
Richard*

So many things come to mind for the thought of the month. Some I find humour in and some may find no humour in them. So, this month I offer you this.

As we age, we grow wiser. The wiser we become, the less we know. So perhaps let's stay young and just enjoy knowing nothing.

The Campers' Report

Hello Campers

Hopefully by now you have seen the stairs by the Pavilion that Richard built. He did a wonderful job. Ute did a great job of supervising this project and I believe was the first one to try out the stairs. Thank you Richard, they will come in handy. I think our wiener roast went well. Considering the weather was bad, we had a really good turnout. It's nice to see everybody getting together for laughs and giggles.

I want to thank all the campers who helped out for Oktoberfest. You did a great job.

Our camping season is starting to wind down and we need to start thinking about getting our trailers ready for the winter season. I have heard moth balls and/or bounce sheets and Irish Spring soap left inside your trailer will help keep the mice out.

See you at the Park.

*Your Chairman
Kevin Pyett*
